A vibrant cultural environment in academic institutions is essential for the psychological well-being and overall growth of students. This supportive atmosphere fosters the expression of each student's unique creative talents. Nurturing young minds is crucial for developing cultured, mature, and confident citizens.

SESSION-2022-2023

RABINDRA SMARAN

Notice for Rabindra Smaran

Rabindra Smaran programme was celebrated on 24th of August 2022. This programme was a combinatorial programme for both the birth anniversary (Rabindra Jayanti) and death Anniversary of Tagore. The programme was initiated by garlanding the statues of Rabindranath and Vidyasagar. It was followed by song, dance and recitation. This time the theme included Tagore's work that celebrated both life and death. The senior batch of students staged a wonderful drama 'Khyatir Birombona' based on Rabindranath's work. It had a hilarious theme and it was remarkable how the students put up such a proficient act and made the audience burst into laughter.

Notice for Golden Jubilee Programme

The college made notable strides during the 2022-2023 academic year, celebrating the Golden Jubilee (from 8th-11th November 2022) with great enthusiasm. Golden Jubilee programme celebrated at the college was a great opportunity to link with the society around the college. A gorgeous procession marked the commencement of this special event. As it passed through the local village, market-place and rice fields people gathered to watch, enjoy and take note of the special occasion. Thereafter no dearth of audience occurred at the college maidan as the plethora of programmes unfurled. The events attracted all strata of the society. The dignitaries at the opening ceremony enlightened the students and made the students academically interested about latest developments in the education policy of the country and the state. Through their speech the Officer-in-charge of police as well as the BDO brought out various useful informations about the local administration. The alumni teachers were invited. This was an added reward for many of the local pass out students to meet their beloved teachers. There were sit-and draw competition and dance and music competition for students of the local schools and this attracted huge number of students. Sumptuous lunches and prizes were arranged to further encourage them.

The cultural programme ranged from classical to rustic and everybody in the audience had something they adored. Vocal music melody showed a vast variety including folk songs, baul songs, modern Bengali songs, rabindrasangeet and songs from Hindi and Bengali films. There were invited artists who staged marvelous performances. But it was amazing to see the talent of teachers and students alike who performed with the orchestra like a pro. Even a group of alumni students had a chance to perform.

Dance performed by the students included a wide variety of items ranging from the theme song of Titanic, rabindranritya, hindi film songs and folk songs. The audience cheered enormously as the lady teachers were enthusiastic enough to put up a dance performance with a rhythmic folk number. Interestingly some young kids of the local community also performed with popular hindi film songs to the great amusement of the audience. There was also a mesmerizing kathak recital by invited artiste. The powerful stamping footwork matching the complex rhythmic cycles of tala, the nuances of abhinaya, the subtle gestures matching the lilting tune of ghazal left the audience spellbound. This was indeed a great treat for the local dance enthusiasts.

There were dramas of various tastes ranging from dance dramas to some with a social message or a hilarious theme. Some local popular drama troops were also invited.

To top it all there was a disco jockey programme that saw the whole campus crowded with young people of the community shrieking in joy as they grooved to popular numbers. The string of events at the Golden jubilee programme were not only thoroughly entertaining but also educative and thought-provoking for the community as a whole. They were very much part of this programme and the inclusive approach of the college certainly made them feel assimilated.

INTERNATIONAL MOTHER LANGUAGE DAY

Notice for International Mother Language Day

International Mother Language Day was celebrated in the college on 21st of February 2023. All students, teachers and staff members followed a black and white dress code in parity with the color theme followed worldwide for this day. The programme started with garlanding of the statuettes of Rabindranath and Vidyasagar, the two stalwarts having profound contribution to our language. Performances were not limited to Bengali, the mother language for the majority of the members. A marvellous display of talent was noted as the students and teachers put up eloquent performances in different languages like English, Bengali, Hindi, Sanskrit and Santhali. Students showed their linguistic proficiency as they conducted the programme in three different languages, English, Bengali and Sanskrit. Thought provoking speeches by the teachers added to the solemnity of the programme.

Notice for Basantotsab

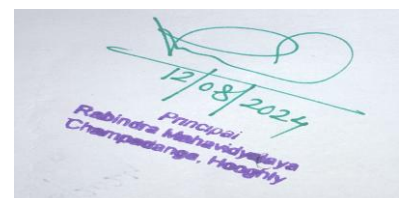

Basantotsab was held at the college on 11th March 2023. This was the very festival that ushered in the beautiful spring season. The students were very enthusiastic about this event and they took great effort to organize it. This was an outdoor programme with a big stage being constructed amidst the stretch of woods inside the college campus. The stage was covered with a green carpet and was decorated with yellow and orange marigold flowers, the color theme of the event being yellow and green. Students and teachers came dressed in yellow saris and kurtas matching this theme. It was breathtaking to see them as they made a procession across the lush green meadows while singing and dancing with spring songs and sprinkling gulal all around. The Principal inaugurated the programme by lighting a torch that gave out smokes of colored powder. The local officer- in-charge of police was also present at the event. Abir of every hue flew in the air and everyone was smeared in it as the party came to full swing. Students put up an exquisite performance of song, dance and recitation based on the theme of spring. The programme culminated in a music jockey programme making the students sway to the spring tunes as they soaked up the essence of this festival of youth.

Notice for Rabindra Jayanti

Rabindra Jayanti, the birth anniversary of Rabindranath Tagore was celebrated on 8th May 2023. The great poet-philosopher is ubiquitously alive in the life of a Bengali, even after 150 years of his death. Their joy, their pain and every other emotion find expression through Tagore's verses. So this becomes a great moment of celebration for everybody in the college. Students and teachers alike look forward to this programme every year as a chance to display their talents through performances based on Tagore's compositions. A gorgeous programme was put up at the college like every other year. The Principal inaugurated the auspicious event through garlanding of the photograph of the poet and lighting the lamp. The programme began with an opening song. It was followed by several other song and dance recitals. Poems were recited. The audience was mesmerized by the engrossing performance, marking a true homage to the great poet.

The spring festival 'Basantotsab' was celebrated at Rabindra Mahavidyalaya on 17th of March 2022. A spring festival of such dimension involving all departments was something the college witnessed for the first time. The small patch of woods at the boundary of the college was chosen as the venue of the open-air programme. The dais amidst the trees, lined by green carpet was created with the shade of green matching the young green leaves sprouting in spring. Students decorated the dais with garlands of orange marigolds and made a colourful hoarding of 'Basantotsab' with the name of the college and '1428' the Bengali year. Chairs were laid on the lush green grass under the cool shade of the trees. Soon the students began to arrive. The panorama of hundreds of girls in yellow sari, garlands in their hair and boys in yellow kurta was breathtaking. Teachers too matched them in wearing different hues of yellow. All were eager to join the procession, a signature event for Basantotsab in Bengal, as propagated by Tagore in Viswabharati. At around noon the procession started from the west corner of the college near the Botany department. Students went dancing and singing, sprinkling flowers and abir (powdered colour) in the air. The famous song "Ore Grihobashi, Khol Dar Khol" where Tagore invokes people to come out of their houses and be part of the beautiful nature of spring was chosen as the theme song. The teachers also joined the students in the rally, which ended at the dais. Next the main programme commenced. Students put up brilliant performances of several songs, recitation and dances based on works by several Bengali poets and Tagore. The audience was mesmerized by the apt performances of the participants. Interestingly the teachers also took part by giving a chorus performance of two songs by Tagore. The theme throughout, not to mention was 'Spring'. The shady trees, the grassy playground, the college building in the background, the touchy poetry and the lilting melody of the songs indeed added up to an ethereal experience that Rabindra Mahavidyalaya would always look forward to.

Similarly, the 2019-2020 year saw limited large-scale activities. The COVID-19 pandemic caused the most significant effect on the whole society, thus, not much cultural events have been recorded over this period. But the annual cultural competition took place but the Grand Finale could not be held as the college was closed all of a sudden due to the pandemic. However, the college observed the death anniversary of Tagore on 8th August 2019 (Baishe Srabon) and birth anniversary of Iswarchandra Vidyasagar, the remarkable Indian educator and social reformer on 26th September 2019 through various activities.
